

STANE GRANDA

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. Dr. Stane Granda (1948), scientific advisor of the Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts (ZRC SAZU), professor emeritus at the University of Nova Gorica, studied history and sociology at the University of Ljubljana. He began his research path in 1973 at the Institute for the Workers' Movement, where he took on the position of an assistant for agrarian history. In 1979, he transferred to the Milko Kos Historical Institute of the ZRC SAZU, where he remained until retirement. He was active in the war for Slovenia in 1991. Beside discussions of agrarian history, his research focuses on cultural, political, and social aspects of the Slovenian national renaissance, especially on the revolutionary year 1848/49. He has also published numerous articles in the fields of economic and social history as well as ecclesiastical history.