

GORAZD BAJC

CURRICULUM VITAE

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Gorazd Bajc (1972) graduated in 1997 at the Department of History of the Faculty of Arts (University of Trieste, Italy), he earned his master's degree (in 2001) as well as his PhD (in 2004) at the Department of History (University of Ljubljana). He lectures at the Department of History of the Faculty of Arts (University of Maribor). As a researcher, he regularly collaborates with the Institute Nova Revija for the Humanities and the Institute IRRIS for research, development and social strategies, culture, and environment. He is a member of the editorial boards of numerous Slovenian as well as international scientific journals. In the capacity of a researcher, he has participated in many programs and projects. The focal fields of his interests include: modern history, history of Slovenian/Yugoslav-Italian relationships, history of the legal situation of the Slovenian minority in Italy, history of diplomacy and international relations, history of intelligence services, history of Antifascisms, history of repression against society, and history of violence. He has helped organize and participated in numerous Slovenian and international scientific conferences.